$150,000 FIRE IN LAC LA BICHE RUINS LUMBER YARD, PROPERTY

LAC LA BICHE, Alta.—Fire of unknown origin caused damage estimated conservatively at $150,000 at Lac la Biche, when flames destroyed the Hayward Lumber Company yard and the firm's retail store and office building.

The fire, starting about six a.m. and continuing for three hours, also damaged a house of the United Grain Growers. Volunteers from the town were credited with saving other buildings in the immediate vicinity.

Thousands of feet of lumber, a hardware store, offices and two homes were destroyed or badly damaged in a spectacular early morning fire.

The fire started in Haywards' lumber yard, burning huge piles of lumber, and then spread through to the lumber yard office and hardware store. Damage to the lumber, office and hardware store is set at more than $125,000.

Two homes, one occupied by P. Paulik and another by Fred Lewis, elevator man, were badly damaged as they caught fire from flying sparks.

A towering wall of flames, reaching high into the air, dense clouds of smoke and the bark of exploding ammunition in the hardware store, made it a spectacular fire.

Every available person in the town helped battle the flames, with the fire still burning in piles of lumber seven hours after the blaze was first noticed.

Jacob Klein, manager of the hardware store, could not say how the fire started. It was first noticed about 6:30 a.m., but by that time the flames had taken a firm hold. Mr. Klein said he had checked over the hardware building at 8:30 p.m. Friday and everything appeared normal. Bruno Bourassa, an employee of Haywards, entered the office and checked the fires at 1:30 a.m. Saturday and said he found nothing wrong.

MAJ. GEN. D. S. SPRY, of Ottawa, chief executive commissioner of Boy Scouts of Canada, was appointed deputy director of the Scouts' international bureau. He will have complete responsibility for Scouting in western hemisphere.

LAC LA BICHE NEWS BRIEFS

Miss Dorothy Wolstenholme, Helen and Anita Michetti, spent a very enjoyable week end in Edmonton and Willingdon. They were accompanied home by Mr. Jack Zacharie and Jim Achtymichuk.

On Hallowe'en hobgoblins of all descriptions began to walk the streets, going from business place to place and house to house getting apples, nuts and candy. They continued until 9 p.m., but no damage was done and only a few pranks played.

Mr. Nick Cherkas has returned from the City, where he has been for medical treatment. We are pleased to report his health is much improved after four months' illness.

Mrs. Ike Settles and two daughters, Mary and Tiny, were in the City to see Mrs. Settles' grandson, born Oct. 26, to Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy.

Father McGrane, with the four Sea Cadets who were overseas, were in to see the Princess and Prince.

The lake froze over last Wednesday, freezing all day with a north-west wind blowing at a velocity of 25 miles per hour. The usual time for the lake to freeze for the past 35 years was from Nov. first to fifth.

There has been an unusual fall here with early snow. Fortunately, most of the crops were threshed. Some vegetables were left in the ground.

Those who spent the week-end in the City to see the Princess and Prince were Rev. Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lobay, Miss Dorthy Hall, Mrs. Ike Settles and two daughters, Mary and Tiny, Morris Zinko and Mrs. Tatum local editor and daughter Lucille. I think the Princess is more lovely when you see her in person than in her picture.

Mr. Gene Lewis, from Fort Saskatchewan, spent a few days here visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Calvert, and son Keith. from Athabasca, visited relatives here.

The fifteenth anniversary sale started Monday at 9:30, with a large crowd looking for the bargains. Mr. William Ungurian from Craigend won the door prize which was a nice table lamp.

Honesty Pays Off

EXETER, R. I.—(BUP)—Herb Dyer is so convinced of the public's honesty that he leaves his vegetable stand unattended. Customers pick out what they want and make their own change. Dyer says one day he found 15 cents extra in his cash jar.

BEAVER RIVER SOCIAL CREDIT CONVENTION IN AURORA THEATRE

LAC LA BICHE — The annual convention of the Beaver River Social Credit Constituency Association will be held in the Aurora Theatre at Lac la Biche on Friday, November 9, 1951, commencing at 1 p.m.

All groups in the constituency are requested to send delegates.

Business of the convention, including the election of delegates to the provincial convention to be held in Calgary, November 22 and 23, will be first on the agenda.

Addresses will be given by Mr. Harry Lobay, MLA for Beaver River, Mr. R. D. Jorgenson, president of the Social Credit league, and Mr. Orvis Kennedy, national organizer.

BAZAAR AND HOME COOKING SALE HELD BY CHURCH MEMBERS

BRIEREVILLE — The women members of the United Church of Briereville held a bazaar and sale of home cooking in Lac la Biche.

Miss O. Melnyk, the school teacher, is planning on having a dance in the near future in aid of the Junior Red Cross. So, keep a'listening for the date.

A nice blanket of snow has come to this district as well as everywhere else. Some crops are threshed and some still in the field in stook. The fall was a very busy one, with four or five threshing machines going and also a couple of combines. There still will be some threshing if this snow doesn't melt on the stooks.

R. Whitford, S. Anderson and B. Price have returned from St. Bride's where they were threshing, as the snow has also delayed the harvest. They hope to return to work as soon as possible, as the wages are pretty fair.

As no news has been sent in for quite some time, there's some old reports, such as:

Robert Liddle drives the bus from here to Lac la Biche, hauling all high school students. Also, John Tesolin has quit high school. He chose a bundle team and pitchfork instead of a pen and a bundle of papers.

Mrs. Henderson and family motored to Vegreville to visit friends and relatives.

We have had some road improvements, with a road built from the highway to the post office and from the highway to J. Tesolin's, that is to the school house. And another road from the Briereville-Rich Lake highway to Mr. Lessard's. What an impression it makes on the district.

Robert Liddle had the misfortune of geting his threshing machine damaged, as some kind of a rod went through and damaged the inside of it.

NEW SCHOOL DESKS FOR STUDENTS OF SPRUCE VALLEY DISTRICT

On Friday, October 19, each Spruce Valley school pupil was supplied with a new chair desk in the Spruce Valley school. These were supplied by the Lac La Biche School Division. Now we can see the old rough double-seated desks piled one on top of each other by the school.

Mike Kochan has purchased a car. Next day he got into the ditch with it.

On Friday, Oct. 26, a show by the name of "Rusty Leads the Way" and "Go Chase Yourself" was held in our district hall.

On Saturday, Oct. 27, a dance till 12:00 p.m. was held in our district hall. The dance was sponsored by the Spruce Valley school under the supervision of Miss Katherine Gregus, the supervisor. Snappy music was supplied by the Grassland Orchestra.

A charming three piece tea set was raffled that night. The lucky winner was Mr. Tony Zachkewich of this district.

Miss Olga Strumelak and Mr. Walter Yuschuk, two of our grade eleven students who are going to the Grassland High School went to see Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh on Saturday, Oct. 27. They went with a few other students on the Blue Jay via Grassland school van owned and operated by Mr. Walter Ilnicki of Blue Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kanerek are the proud parents of a baby girl born on Oct. 12 in the Lac La Biche Hospital.

PARTY FOR MR. AND MRS. TERRIEN, POPULAR LAC LA BICHE COUPLE

A farwell party for Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Terrien and family was held at their home on Saturday, October 20, on the occasion of their departure to take up residence at Big Bay. Some 25 guests were present and a good time was had by all.

A lovely mantel clock was presented to the family, a gift from the members of the comunity.

Mr. Terien has been employed here by the Imperial Lumber Co. for 4 years as Manager of the planermill and the siding. He has also been a trustee of the school board while Mrs. Terrien acted as secretary.

Backbone Of the Army

As every veteran knows, regardless of which branch of the service he was in, the Infantry soldier wins the battles and the wars. No other group of fighting men have won the high honors that Canada's infantry have won, and in no group is the spirit of high purpose and comradeship in better evidence.

Alberta men who want to travel and serve their country, men who are young enough to appreciate adventure now have an opportunity to fulfill a life-long ambition. The Canadian Army has openings now for such men in the honoured Infantry Corps. Recruiting Officer Captain Roy A. Jardine of Headquarters Western Command has appointed local recruiting officers in various towns in Alberta so that young men in rural areas can easily consult a qualified representative of the Army in their own home districts.

The recruiting campaign starts in Alberta on November 1st. Recruits will have the opportunity of identifying themselves with either the famous Loyal Edmonton Regiment, the Princess Pat Canadian Light Infantry or one of the excellent eastern or B.C. units. Every new infantryman has his choice of unit—and choice of career in the Infantry.

Conservatives To Open Fight

Alberta Conservatives have decided to end the peace and take up the old-time dividing battle that has little meaning in a realistic world, but leaves only a sour taste in the public mouth. The Tory party never has got anywhere in Alberta and it is more than probable it never will, but just the same, heredity, historic background and party pride must have its way. Party integrity, not party co-operation, is the watchword.

Time, effort, money, peace in the public arena, all these and much more mean nothing, the party must keep alive, even if only in gasps and spasms and jerks, in the hope that some day, in some mysterious and miraculous manner, something will happen to squeeze the Tory group into the seats of the mighty in Alberta.

In the federal field it is different. There the Tories have always taken a prominent and useful role in the country's affairs, but, in Alberta where the party spasms are only the dying plunges of a fishy mite, it means only fighting, disturbance of the provincial peace and a waste of effort, money and time. When will a Tory learn anything?

News Item: "More than one hundred delegates from all over Alberta are expected to attend the provincial convention of the Progressive Conservative Association, at the Macdonald, Nov. 15 to 16, according to the Northern Alberta vice-president..

Coyote Control

Farmers and ranchers who suffer loss year by year by coyotes, often differ among themselves as to the best means of control. The old system of bounties, though favoured yet by some, is definitely disapproved of by the Government officials. It seems, though, that coyote days are numbered in Alberta, what with the new cyanide guns and system of instruction schools to inform those interested on how to use them. Nine districts have conducted these schools.

These are the Municipal Districts of Ponoka, Bonnyville, Cochrane, Wetaskiwin, Bright, Camrose, Stony Plain and Leduc, and local Improvement District No. 76 (Beaton area). The Municipal Districts of Pincher Creek, Kneehill, Lac Ste. Anne and Red Deer also have applied for the establishment of the program in their districts.

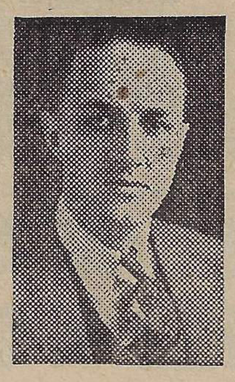

The schools familiarize Pest Control Officers with cyanide "coyote-getters" and the necessary precautions taken when setting up a gun. These include the posting of warning signs in the area and notifying neighbors and local schools of the danger. The "coyote-getters," cyanide cartridges, scents, bait and other materials are supplied free of cost by the Department of Agriculture to organized districts and distributed by the District Agriculturists and Pest Control Officers. Coyote guns set our properly have been successful.

Helibuses, Helicabs, Heliports and Helicosts

By T. W. PUE

In some ways, flying is the fastest distance between two points. In other ways, it pays you to fly only if you have plenty of time.

On a trip from Halifax to Vancouver you save probably three days flying time and on such a jaunt the two hours spent in limousine travel between airport and down-town hotel is inconsequential. But flying from Edmonton to Wetaskiwin, say, would involve more time in ground travel than in flight. Edmonton has the unique advantage of having an airport literally in the down-town area. But it won't be long before public opinion will force the city to sell the present airport property (at a big price) to housing and commercial interests and the airport will be located about ten miles from the Macdonald Hotel, just like in other big cities.

FLY TO THE AIRPORT?

The helicopter, that strange looking machine with a wind mill in front, and another big one on top, may be the answer to the problem. In Detroit, for instance, you travel 40 miles to get to the airport. And it's so far from the point the bus drops you off to the point where you actually step into the plane that I think another bus service should be instituted to serve passengers once they get to the airport.

Anyway, it would simplify air travel greatly if passengers could fly that 40 miles from the roof of the Brooks-Cadillac to Willow Run—and save hours of travel. That's what the helicopter would do—fly the passengers to the airport from a small "airfield", the flat roof of a tall down-town building. With it's second propeller sitting on the top, twirling around like an old fashioned fan in an ice cream parlor, it flies straight up.

NOW MERCY PLANE

The time I rode in a helicopter was back in 1937, long before it was put to the serious work of flying wounded men out of combat zones, as is done now in Korea. It cost me $5.00 for a ten minute flight over Toronto from what is now Malton Airport.

But will the strange looking flying windmill do a real job in commercial aviation? I believe it will.

I think that in a few years, besides flying passengers to and from airports, it'll be used to make the local runs now being operated by buses and trains.

Helicopters will become helibuses, by carrying passengers from the roof of the Edmonton bus depot to towns and villages in the province. It will take 1½ hours to fly to Whitecourt with stops at Onoway, Sangudo and Mayerthorpe. The helibus will serve towns now getting mail by bus and train.

Helicabs will respond to private calls in the same manner as taxixs do now. Only you'll call a helicab to travel distances of not less than ten or fifteen miles.

Every town will have a heliport. If the new Killam arena had a flat roof it would make an excellent heliport. Other towns would be wise to preserve a complete block of land to be held as a future heliport for downtown parking of helibuses and helicabs.

Then there are helicosts. It will cost more to fly by helicab than to travel by taxicab. The biggest expense will be the initial cost of the machines. But now in Korea they're giving them plenty of practical experience and it may be that after the extravagences of war have run their course a future Henry Ford will produce helicopters cheaply by mass production.

You may even be the proud owner of your own private family helicar. I hope so anyway.

THE BIBLE TODAY:

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh; that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. . . . For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.—From Paul's letter to the Romans, Chapter 8, Verses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 6.

Note and Comment

We're afraid that one problem facing Alberta farmers has been solved—but the solution is worse than the problem. Where to store the 1951 grain crop until it could be moved by rail to port shipping points, isn't now the big problem. The farmer's worry is how to get the crops in from the fields, with near zero weather and blowing snow, day after day. The situation, particularly right here in Alberta, is serious.

LIFE OF RILEY?

Dear Sir—I'd sure like to know what "Tired Businessman" knows about socialism. He says he is tired—what a laugh. I bet your seat must have blisters from sitting around all day. He thinks farmers have it easy, but I bet the only farmer he must have seen was in the movies.

For his information, farmers on the whole work from sunrise to sunset.

I don't see what "Tired Businessman" has to beef about because if it wasn't for the farmer what would he have to eat?

AGAINST PRICE CONTROL

Dear Sir—I have seen an editorial in your September 18 issue in which you argue that the labor unions are right in asking for price control. You say that in the United States the cost-of-living index has not risen since control has been put on. On the other hand the cost-of living index has been rising in Canada, while controls have not been put on. You think this proves that the unions are right.

This summer has been too short for the ripening of crops. It has been, also, much too short as a test of price control as a means of keeping prices down.

If this spring the Canadian Government had followed the example of the United States, and started talking about putting on price control, there would have been a check given to price increases here, just as was the case there. The people would have felt that, with a promise from the Government, that prices would be stopped from rising, it would be safe to withhold from spending.

That is, as the wartime experience showed, price control will work for a while. The trouble is that it breaks down in the end, in a free country. No government of a free country can long prevent its people from buying what they want to buy, at prices which they can and will pay, and it is a plain fact that prices never rise beyond the point at which the public can and will pay for them.

Mr. Abbot has pointed out in plain language that the famous price control system in Canada during the war was taken off in 1946, because the Government felt that it was about to break down. Price control was taken off in the United States because it had broken down, there. Hold your horses for a moment. Price control, in the United States, is now admittedly breaking down again, after being tried for only a few months. When it breaks down, the cost-of-living in that country will rise even faster than it has been rising in Canada.

As the British Labor Party has pointed out in a recent pamphlet, "This Cost of Living Business," the cure for inflation is increased production. This cure can be helped a lot by the Government cutting down on some of its spending, for it is Government spending which is the main source of inflation in the United States and Canada.

Price controls, as the American Federation of Labor has recently pointed out, in its publication, "Labor's Monthly Survey," "do not reach the real causes of inflation and of these causes are not dealt with, price controls cannot be effective but will only lead to (1) black markets while controls are on, and (2) serious inflation after they are lifted."

THAT'S FOR SURE.

Small Alberta Towns Keep Pace With Growth Of Edmonton

Edmonton is not alone in rapid expansion, the recent census shows, but small towns and villages in Alberta manage very well to keep abreast with their capital's example of progress and expansion.

The 1951 census shows that some of Alberta's smaller communities have more than doubled their population in the last five year period, and developed their businesses and utilities accordingly.

Towns such as Redwater, Leduc and Nisku have sprung into importance through the development of Alberta's rich oil fields, and have set up secondary industries in the boom that will always employ a greater number of new citizens than they could have imagined a few years ago.

Oil, however, cannot be given all the credit. Agriculture can also claim considerable importance.

With the rise in returns for top grade farm products, and increased rapid production of foodstuffs, better facilities in small towns have had to be built. More modern creameries and egg grading stations are springing up, employing construction men, local helpers, and in most cases, city trained specialists.

Scores of homesteaders are moving into our more northern districts and setting up communities for their own convenience, where they not only buy their staples and sell their products, but also meet there for pleasure and entertainment.

Here are statistics taken at random from the 1951 census to illustrate just how our small towns have grown:

Redwater, from not incorporated to 1,302.

Andrew, from 326 to 623.

Killam, from 347 to 465.

Increases can be shown in many others like Vilna, Thorhild, Beiseker, Clyde and Daysland.

TWO POPULAR EGG LAKE COUPLES MARRIED IN CHURCH WEDDINGS

There have been more weddings in the district since our last news appeared in this paper. First, on Oct. 24, Miss Alice Huppie, daughter of Albert Huppie was married to Johnny Levesque of Edson. They were married at the Lac La Biche Mission Church. They had dinner and supper at the home of the bride and the dance was given in the Lac La Biche hall.

A good time was enjoyed by everybody. The newlyweds will reside at Edson, after a honeymoon spent at Vancouver. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Delia and Vina, and the best men were Ronald Thomas and Joseph L'Heureux.

On October 30th another wedding of interest was cedebrated in our church, when Miss Alice Lemay, daughter of Louis Lemay was married to Etienne Richard, son of Medard Richard of Normandeau.

The bride was attended by the groom's sister Juliette, and the best man was Albert L'Heureux,

The bride was pretty in her floor length dress of satin and finger tip veil of net, with a big bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid was all in blue.

Dinner was served to about 50 guests at the home of the bride and everybody went to the Lac La Biche hall, where supper was served to a great number of guests and there was a dance after. Everybody had a wonderful time. They will reside at Normandeau.

On Sunday, Oct. 28 there was a shower, organized by Mrs. Edmond Page and Miss Rose Ilniki in the school house, for Miss Mary Jeanne L'Heureux, who is getting married on Nov. 6, to Jimmy Rudiger, of Adanac Sask. She received many presents and a good time was enjoyed by all. On Nov. 12 another wedding will take place, but this will be for our next courier.

It seems that winter is here to stay. A few farmers still had not finished threshing, but we hope they will still be able to save their crops.

Mrs. L.G. Amiot has opened a store in her home. She is the postmistress of Egg Lake post Office.

Visitors at the home of Mr. Marcell Vincent, on Oct. 28, were Mr. and Mrs. Clement Vincent and son Robert, from Normandeau. At the home of Mr. Armand Lebeuf, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaudet, their son Charles and Mrs. Andre Gaudet, and baby son. At the home of L.G. Amiot, were Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Dakin and daughter Helen.

Average Canadian Wealthiest in World, Winspear Tells Chamber of Commerce

By MARC THIVIERGE

QUEBEC CITY, Oct. 31. — (BUP) — Josef Stalin was called a Hitler yesterday and told that this nation wants no part of his way of life because Mr. Average Canadian is the wealthiest man in the world.

Francis G. Winspear of Edmonton, ex-president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said Stalin, like Hitler ,was propelled by a devastating ideology which Canadians found dangerous and with which they coul not concur.

Winspear made the opening address to the Chamber's 22nd annual conference which attracted 700 of the nation's selected business, industry and commerce representatives to the Chateau Frontenac hotel here.

Winspear was succeeded as CC President today by Rene Perrault of Montreal.

"Mr. Average Canadian is the wealthiest man in the world from the aspect of per capita potential resources. Here is a nation which in 10 years has increased its national production from $7,500,000,000 to $18,000,000,000 annually; its national income from $4,000,000,000 to $14,000,000,000," said Winspear.

"Communists adhere to the view that one or two presumably able or even brilliant men can best organize the productive resources of a nation. We believe it is much better to let Mr. Average Canadian save his money, invest in resources, operate his business.

"Stalin and Hitler believe that the state is the ultimate in civilized endeavor and that the interests of the individual should therefore be wholly subjected to the interests of state. In Canada we develop from the individual to the nation and from the nation to mankind.

"Communism holds to the necessity of class conflict and the continuing battle between the proletariat and the bourgeoise. Canada believes there must be a privilege—a privilege which comes from wealth. And Mr. Average Canadian is the wealthiest man in the world."

Winspear said he could not believe that economic self-interest was behind the current Korean conflict.

"Economic needs may have played some part in Hitler's attitude, but Soviet Russia and its unscrupulous leaders are motivated only by a desire to enforce their doctrines on free men."

CALGARY VETOES TRAM PASSES

CALGARY, Alta., Oct. 31. —(BUP)—The Calgary city council has rejected a move to re-introduce weekly passes on the city transit system.

Alderman R. T. Alderman proposed the action, but council voted 8-to-2 against after transit superintendent R. H. Wray said such tickets would result in a loss of revenue.

$60,000 Claim In Hotel Explosion

A $60,250 damage claim was filed in Edmonton by the wife of one of 10 persons killed in the Leduc Hotel blast last Remembrance Day.

Mrs. Dolores Bernice Broman filed the claim against Leduc Utilities Ltd., which was completing a natural gas system in Leduc when the blast occurred, and contractors Federick H. Wilson, Leonard F. Wilson and W. P. Prosser.

Oil worker William Leroy Broman, husband of Mrs. Broman, was killed in the explosion and fire that destroyed the oil town hotel. Besides his wife, he left five children between five and 12 years of age.

Egyptian Terrorists Threaten Lashing To Persons Helping British Troops

By WALTER COLLINS

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 2.—(BUP)—The Egyptian underground movement warned today that hereafter any person helping to supply British troops will be lashed in a public square and branded on the face with fire.

The warning came in a leaflet distributed by "liberation" battalions in the Suez Canal zone.

It said that effective today all "collaborators" who sell or transport supplies to the British garrison will be rounded up by the underground and punished in public.

The branding by fire, according to the leaflet, will serve as a "lifelong mark of treachery."

The Interior Ministry disclosed two days ago that "liberation battalions", determined to force the British out of Egypt and the Sudan are springing up throughout the nation. It said they were able to obtain arms on the black market.

In another secret leaflet scattered through the Canal Zone, the underground forces threatened to meet British troops on an "eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth" basis, according to the newspaper Al Misri.

Provincial Gov't Eager To Tackle Southern Alberta Irrigation Project

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., Oct. 31 — (BUP)—The Alberta government wants to make provision in its 1952 estimates for completion of the Bow River irrigation project west of here, according to two provincial cabinet ministers.

Agriculture Minister David Ure and Industries and Labor Minister J. L. Robinson stressed at a meeting with the irrigation committee of the Medicine Hat Chamber of Commerce that the Alberta government was "extremely anxious" to see the Bow River scheme completed.

The project would provide water for 60,000 acres of land in the Redcliffe-Ronolane area. Completion would mean the achievement of a goal first aimed at some 40 years ago by the Canada Land and Irrigation Company.

The province would provide for distribution of irigation water after it was carried across the Bow River west of Meicine Hat by a siphon. The federal government, which bought the Canada Land and Irrigation Company would provide the siphon at an estimated cost of $500,000.

The provincial share of the cost, for preparing land east of the river for irrigation, was set at $500,000.

Police here at first said they did not believe the slaying was political. But after investigating, offiicals say the house boy apparently was planted by terrorists. U.S. Army To Soon Reach Goal Of Largest Peace-Time Force

SENDAI, Japan, Oct. 31—(BUP)—General J. Lawton Collins, U.S. Army Chief of Staff, says that the U.S. will reach its goal of the largest peace-time army in its history within a year.

Collins said the army plans to raise the equivalent of 27 divisions with adidtional strength to be dictated by "what is warranted."

The proposed buildup will include the calling up of three more National Guard divisions, to make a total of nine. In addition, there will be 12 regular divisions and enough outfits of regimental size to make up the remainder.

NOT A DROP OF BEER LEFT IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 31 — (BUP) — Beer drinkers here are muttering "water, water, everywhere, but not a drop of beer to drink" as 500 brewery workers continue their strike.

Officials of the B.C. Hotelmen's Association predict most beer parlors will be completely sold out by tonight. Eighteen "pubs" now have the "sold out" sign attached to their doors.

No move has been made by either management or employees to end the strike which has tied up four British Columbia breweries.

Average hourly earnings in manufacturing in Canada rose by 10.8 per cent from April 1, 1950, to April 1, 1951.

Moscow Protests Disturbing Graves Of Dead In Norway

OSLO, Norway (U.P.)—Even the dead Russians who fell during the liberation of Norway or were starved to death in German camps during the occupation play their part in the cold war between East and West.

More than 8,500 Russian soldiers are buried in 95 seperate places in northern Norway, partly in thinly-populated districts where the maintenance of graves, according to Norwegian authorities, is difficult.

The Norwegian government therefore has decided to move all Russians graves to the little island of Tjoetta, some six miles north of Harstad.

SOVIET PROTESTS

The exhuming of the Russian soldiers began this summer in spite of protests by the Soviet embassy in Oslo, which in various notes to the Norwegian foreign office declared that the plan was an insult to the brave men who fell for the freedom of Norway.

The Russians said they were willing to pay for the maintenance of the various graves.

"There is no sensible reason for the decision to dig up thousands of dead Russians and remove them," the Russians said in a note Aug. 22.

Norwegian authorities decided despite the Russian protests to go ahead with their plans.

The exhuming of the Russian soldiers in northern Norway has been the subject of several articles in Norwegian papers, with some rather sharp attacks on the government.

There have been wild rumors of drinking parties by the excavators amidst the skeletons of dead Russians.

Such stories have, however, been denied by the church organs responsible for the exhuming. Church officials said the work has been carried out in an orderly manner with all respect to the fallen warriors of Soviet Russia.

The Soviet news agency Tass quoted the Norwegian Communist newspaper Friheten as saying "the actions of (the government) constitute a challenge to the deepest feelings of the entire Norwegian people. And how insulting this must be to the feelings of the Soviet people. . . ."

The newspaper was quoted as saying. We repeat, halt the destruction! Let the fallen lie where they are buried!"

FATHER M'GRANE SPEAKS TO EDMONTON KIWANIS CLUB

An idea formulated some 40 years ago resulted in his trip to Europe this summer, said Rev. J. E. McGrane, when he spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Edmonton Kiwanis Club held in the Macdonald hotel. He gave an account of the trip made with four members of the Lac la Biche Sea Cadets on the good ship "Exeter."

The home-made boat was transported to Montreal and put on the Empress of Canada. The party sailed July 20 and had a fine crossing. The cadets were given the run of the ship and the captain invited them up to the bridge as the liner left the quay at Montreal.

The sea cadets are all first generation Canadians and they represented four nations: Jack Wolstenholme, England; Romeo Lebeuf, France; Harold Kline, Germany; and Wilfred Woychuck, The Ukraine. The four boys, who had never been out of Alberta, were thrilled with all they saw while overseas. The group, according to Father McGrane, was very well received in England, where the Navy League of Great Britain did a "marvelous job" of arranging receptions and entertainment.

Arriving in Liverpool, the party was honored at an official reception and leading a long list of dignitaries waiting to greet them was the Lord Mayor.

Here they witnessed celebrations in connection with the Festival of Britain and the "Changing of the Guard" from the balcony of the Town Hall. During their three-day stay they were taken under the River Mersey by the tunnel and across the same river by ferry for several trips to New Brighton.

Leaving Liverpool, the Exeter crossed the mouth of the river on the following tide and entered the Manchester ship canal at the Eastham locks, and went up the Canal to Manchester. Here they had tea with the Lord Mayor at the Town Hall and visited English Sea Cadets. They were taken for drives around the district and were guests at that famous Lancashire amusement park, Belle Vue. Here too, Father McGrane saw his mother and Jack Wolstenholme met a cousin.

From there, the party began the long journey of 500 miles to London. This may not seem so long to Canadians but it must be remembered that along those 500 miles were 300 canal locks which had to be worked.

The travelling wasn't all hard work, however, for each weekend the group rested and had meals ashore, otherwise they did all their cooking on board.

Getting close to London, they stayed at Rickmansworth, where the cadets were royally entertained. They were guests at the Odeon theatre for a special Saturday morning program. A naval mast was erected and the boys appeared on the stage and were presented to the audience. Also they were given passes for the other shows in "Ricky", as the natives call it.

At the Joan of Arc Convent, a former Sister Superior of St. Catherine's hospital, Lac la Biche, Mother Francis Xavier, resides, and the crew of the Exeter were invited there. The grounds are most beautiful and the cadets were able to visit the orchard and pick apples off the trees.

Then on to London. The travellers entered the River Thames at Brentford and, as at Liverpool, the Navy League supplied a pilot. The estimated time of arrival alongside H.M.S. President was 4 p.m. Wednesday, Aug.29, and they arrived just as "Big Ben" was bonging the hour.

Royal Navy and Navy League offiicals, and R. A. McMullen, agent-general for the Province of Alberta in London, met them, and they found it hard to believe their little ship, designed and built in Lac la Biche, was moored in the Pool of London, right beside one of His Majesty's great ships beside the Victoria Embankment. They changed into their "number ones" to be received aboard H.M.S. President, after which they visited the famous sights, such as Westminster, the Tower of London, Scotland Yard, Windsor Castle, Westminster Cathedral, Buckingham Palace, Trafalgar Square, and the great naval base at Portsmouth, and dined on board H.M.S. Dido. They visited Lord Nelson's famous ship, "H.M.S. Victory," where they were shown the very spot where the hero of Trafalgar was mortally wounded. Then they were taken below decks and saw where he died, a few minutes after hearing the news that the British fleet was victorious.

The cadets were taken to the Hemmingay arena in London, and not only did they see the Ice Show, Rose Marie On Ice, but they actually met Barbara Ann Scott, who very graciously received them and autographed their programs. Then they visited the London Palladium and met the Canadian born movie actor, Jack Carson, and had their pictures taken with him.

While in Paris, France, they visited such famous places as the Eiffel Tower, Dieppe, the Unknown Soldier's tomb at the Arch of Triumph, Notre Dame, and many others.

Returning to London the Exeter was shipped aboard a vessel at Victoria docks and the boys and Father McGrane made their return trip to Canaad on the Empress of France.

The Exeter is now safe at Lac la Biche awaiting repairs, he added.

Father McGrane was introduced by Rodney Pike, former naval commander, and thanked by William Cromb, chairman of the meeting.

CCF Using TV In Ontario Campaign

TORONTO—(BUP)—The CCF will make political speeches over a Detroit television station during the current Ontario election campaign.

Provincial party leader E. B. Jolliffe announced he would appear on a half hour program over station WHJ-JV with Gordon Ellis, sitting member for Windsor-Essex, and CCF'ers George Watson and William C. Riggs. The program will be sponsored by the CIO United Auto Workers.

Union Chief Denies Split Within Ranks Of Labor Congress

OTTAWA, Nov. 2. — (BUP) — A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, denied last night that the CCL's executive meeting was stalemated over a split within the organization.

"The fact that, apart from minor differences of opinion on some incidental matters, there was complete unanimity in the meetings, is a clear indication of the continued strength of the Congress," Mosher said.

"At no time in the history of the Congress has the executive shown more harmony and determination to co-operate in the interests of the Congress and of the Canadian labor movement," he added.

It was announced that an agreement had been reached between the United Steelworkers of America and the Congress in relation to unions representing shipyard workers in Collingwood, Midland and Port Arthur, Ont.

The shipyard workers now belong to local unions which are directly chartered by the CCL. The steel union applied for direct jurisdiction over the workers, but acting secretary-treasurer H. A. Chappell said the application had been withdrawn.

EDMONTON RURAL HEALTH UNIT QUARTERLY REPORT STATES WASTE DISPOSAL GROUNDS ARE IMPROVED

The department of public works is removing dirt from the Leduc waste disposal grounds, and the result should provide a pit to take care of Leduc's refuse for many years. This was stated in the third and final quarterly report of the Edmonton Rural Health Unit. The report, issued by Dr. H. Siemens, medical officer of health, covered the period from July 1 to Sept. 30. The report stated a pit type waste disposal ground is also planned for Nisku and Beaumont.

Sixty-four people were X-rayed by the tuberculosis division and three new active cases were discovered.

The mobile unit, working from Lamont, has made arrangements to do mass X rays in four school districts in the north-east corner of the Clover Bar school division.

Twelve cases of whooping cough were reported. Of the eleven for whom records are available, nine had not been inoculated and two had been partially completed. The single case of scarlet fever had not received inoculations.

J. A. MacDougall visited 38 classrooms and gave 33 talks. There were 628 children interviewed privately.

Milk deliveries have again commenced in Morinville. A local farmer delivers his raw milk to an Edmonton plant and returns with bottled milk.

Complaints regarding "ropy milk" were received from the residents of Calmar. After an investigation it was found that poor housekeeping by a new man in the pasteurizing plant was responsible.

All the dairy cattle in this milk shed were tested for the possible presence of mastitis, and curative measures have been adopted for afflicted cows of the herd.

Owing to excessive rainfall the scavenging service in most towns was not regularly maintained. Most lanes displayed a larger number of garbage cans, but much work along this line is still to be done. Most restaurants were visited and improvements noted in some.

During the period, immunizing doses and immunity tests were given for various diseases. Scarlet fever ran the highest with 926 doses, followed closely by pertussis with 890 and diphtheria with 885 doses.

Included in the summary of the work done were examinations of persons of all ages by a doctor, nurses and the guidance clinic which totalled 703 and home visits amounting to 680. Cases of communicable diseases such as chicken pox, impetigo, measles and whooping cough—contacted, visited and quarantined, amounted to 313.

Inspections for sanitation, carried out in butcher shops, dairies, restaurants and such, totalled 236.

Old Batch Stafford, the thrifty mountaineer, had long been dividing his attentions between skinny Elviry and buxom Matilda, the village spinsters. One day a tipsy town loafer said: "When are you going to make your mind up twixt them two gals, Batch?"

"Cain't say," replied the thrifty bachelor. "Matilda's bigger and stouter and can do more work. Still, on the other hand, it only takes three yards of calico to make Elviry a dress."

Letter to Louisa

Dear Louisa,

I have been going with two boys and I can't decide which I like the best.

One is of my same faith, and the other is not, so, of course, my parents like the first one best.

Do you think I should consider that when I make up my mind?

Sweet Sixteen

Answer:

I do not think that you are in love with either of these boys and you are too young to get married, anyway.

However, if you do feel that you have to make a choice, your chances for happiness are greater if you marry someone of your own faith.

There is more to marriage than passion and all young people would be wise to look for congeniality the same things and worship in the chance of friction where people like the same things and worship in the same way.

LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

My husband has been in Korea for the past six months and I have not received my allotment. I have one child and I am becoming desperate.

The baby is small and I have no one to leave it wth and my money is about gone. I am sure that my husband signed for an allotment as he told me so before he left.

What can I do?

WORRIED WIFE.

Answer:

I assume that you have writen to your husband and have contacted the army officer in charge of your area. The best thing you can do now is to go to the nearest Red Cross office and talk with the director.

He or she, as the case may be, will try to get in touch with your husband by wire to find out what the trouble is.

Very often the Red Cross office will make you a loan on your allotment if it is desired for any reason.

LOUISA.

LANA TURNER can't help but look alluring no matter what she wears but this hat—it's red, folks—seems to touch off her blonde beauty, as well as the red gloves she wears with it in MGM's "Mr. Imperium."

H. ERICKSON FROM GOOSE LAKE 4TH IN BROAD SHOOT AT WINNIPEG

LAC LA BICHE — Herbert Erickson from Goose Lake, a returned man who attended school here as a boy, returned home after the trip he has had, and it will be some time before the memories fade from his mind of the archery shoot in Edmonton and Winnipeg.

He joined Herb Albert and son Eddie and Walter Bunkall from Edmonton, and Stan Brooke from Vancouver, where they motored to Winnipeg via Minot, North Dakota, then went through Rugby, North Dakata, the exact geographical centre of North America, covering one thousand miles in twenty hours on a four lane highway, only stopping for meals.

The first tournament was held at Winnipeg, for the championship of Canada.

Herb Albert, from Edmonton, flight shoot at 482 yards.

Herb Erickson came fourth in the broad shoot.

They spent one week in Winnipeg and crossed Lake Michigan on a ferry to Toronto, for the exhibition shoot.

Stan Brooke from Vancouver, king of Canadian Archers, won the target shoot. Eddie Albert, from Edmonton, won the clout shoot for juniors, with a score of 262 points out of the possible of 324 points.

Walter Bunkall, from Edmonton, shot there for three days, and was only thirty points under Bill Frost, who won the Toronto Exhibition target shoot and field shoot. Walter came second in target shoot.

Eddie and Walter Bunkall shot at Toronto for three days, then flew to Medicine Hat for the Provincial shoot. Bill Falyen won the Clout shoot. Visitors from the States took the field and the target shoot. Herb Erickson took a bronze shield for flight shoot with ordinary target tackle shoot, a distance of 229 yards. This was the last tournament, all having had a wonderful time.

In the field event Bill Frost of Toronto made it three years straight to walk home with the beautiful new trophy, donated by the H. & F.A.O.

Lumber Season To Start Soon

LAC LA BICHE — With the coming of the cold weather, and a light snowfall with the promise of more, the little community of Imperial Mills is bustling like the proverbial beehive.

Contractors are moving in every day with their equipment in readiness to start the logs rolling for the winter cut of lumber. With weather favorable, there should be a lot of lumber at the siding by the time the snow leaves next spring. It looks like a busy winter for Messrs Fisher and Alexander.

Miss Virginia Van der Schaaf of Stony Plain, and Lloyd Johnson of Legal, were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. R. G. Fisher.

There have been 12 authentic occurrences of diamonds found in North Carolina.
